

Frequently Asked Questions ICA General Assembly Buenos Aires 19-26 October

Dear members of the International Co-operative Alliance,

Please find below the answers to some frequently asked questions:

How can I get a visa letter?

Email Mrs Nadia Robleno directly from our host COOPERAR (internacionales@cooperar.coop). Please send her the following information for each participant.

- Complete name
- Passport number
- Birthdate
- Estimated travel dates
- Hotel or address where you will stay in Argentina
- Contact phone number
- Contact email

How can I reserve a hotel room?

A number of hotel options near the conference venue can be found at https://www.aciamericas.coop/vcumbre_alojamiento_en. Just click on the blue pins in the map on this page and more information for each alternative hotel will display. Note that the Hotel Panamericano is fully booked.

How do I register for the General Assembly?

Gretchen Hacquard (hacquard@ica.coop) will send a personalized "voter designation form" to each member around 20 September. Observers do not need to register.

Do I have to pay to attend the General Assembly?

There is no registration fee for the General Assembly. There is only a registration fee if you wish to attend the V Summit of the Cooperatives of the Americas. Information about how to register for the Summit and the costs can be found at https://www.aciamericas.coop/vcumbre_registro_en.
