

Regina Alenbakh

Personal Profile

Regina Alenbakh is a young cooperative leader, educator, and international relations professional from the Russian Federation. She combines academic expertise, practical experience in cooperative education, and active engagement in organizing international cooperation initiatives.

Throughout her career, Regina has worked at the intersection of education, youth development, public administration, and international cooperation. She is committed to strengthening the role of young people within the global cooperative movement and promoting international dialogue among cooperative organizations.

Professional Experience

Assistant to the Rector, Russian university of cooperation (2021–Present)

- Supports the Rector in executive administration.
- Coordinates official correspondence and documentation.
- Organizes national and international events.
- Works with international delegations and cooperative partners.

Education

Bachelor's Degree, Kazan Federal University – Asian and African Studies;

Currently studying for a Master's degree in historical science in Kazan Federal University;

Professional Retraining: Teacher Education Program (2024).

Languages

Russian (Native)

Tatar (Native)

English (B2)

Persian (A1)

Arabic (A1)

Areas of Expertise

International cooperation; Cooperative education; Youth engagement; Event organization; Project coordination; Executive administration; Public communication; Cross-cultural communication.

Leadership and International Experience

Regina has extensive experience organizing large-scale educational and international events, supporting cooperation between educational institutions and international partners, and working with foreign delegations. Her work focuses on strengthening cooperation between young people, educational institutions, and cooperative organizations.

Vision for the ICA Youth Committee

As a candidate for the Presidium of the ICA Youth Committee, aims to strengthen international cooperation among young cooperators by creating more opportunities for dialogue, leadership development, and knowledge exchange.

Priorities:

- Expand international youth cooperation.
- Increase youth participation in ICA activities.
- Promote cooperative education and leadership.
- Encourage exchange of best practices.
- Strengthen communication among young cooperators worldwide.